Dear [REDACTED]

An amount of $100.00 accrued to you in 1958 and payable in 1959 remains in your escrow account. The amount is, of course, in addition to the larger balance held in escrow which is payable only upon your request. I would like to know what disposition you wish to be made of the $100.00; by deposit to your bank, Chase Manhattan on our records, or sent to you in the form of a cashier's check? Further, do you wish taxes withheld and, if so, how much? Under the terms of your agreement and according to the IRS Code the amounts payable in a given year are also taxable in that year.

Please address your reply to the address shown in the heading of this letter.

Yours truly,

John
